The first system of musical notation for 'CHANT by Jones' consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature (C). It begins with a forte (ff) dynamic marking. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. It begins with a pianissimo (pp) dynamic marking. Both staves contain a series of notes, including a repeat sign in the upper staff.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. The upper staff features a series of notes with a crescendo hairpin. The lower staff continues with notes and rests. The key signature remains two flats and the time signature is common time.

LORD MORNINGTON.

The third system of musical notation for 'LORD MORNINGTON' consists of two staves. The upper staff begins with a forte (ff) dynamic marking and contains a series of notes. The lower staff contains notes and rests. The key signature is two flats and the time signature is common time.

The fourth system of musical notation continues the piece. The upper staff features a series of notes with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The lower staff contains notes and rests. The key signature is two flats and the time signature is common time.

The fifth system of musical notation for 'LORD MORNINGTON' consists of two staves. The upper staff features a series of notes with a crescendo hairpin and a 'morendo.' marking. The lower staff contains notes and rests. The key signature is two flats and the time signature is common time.

The sixth system of musical notation for 'LORD MORNINGTON' consists of two staves. The upper staff features a series of notes with a crescendo hairpin. The lower staff contains notes and rests, with a (G#) marking. The key signature is two flats and the time signature is common time.
